Loire-Inférieure, Bretagne, France, 25 Jan. 1854. Ordonné prêtre à Nantes, 1879; a fait ses humanités au Petit Séminaire de Guérande et sa théologie au Grand Séminaire de Nantes; nommé vicaire à Soudan, vaste paroisse rurale, se dévoua à ce peuple simple et croyant, parcourant les hameaux isolés et donnant tout ce qu'il possédait. Cependant il cherchait sa voie; en 1885, il entra au Noviciat des Missionnaires du Sacré Cœur, congrégation à vœux simples fondée en 1854, à Issoudun par le T.R.P. Chevalier. Il trouva l'aliment à son zèle de feu dans l'accomplissement adéquat de la devise de cette société: "May the Sacred Heart be everywhere loved," la dévotion au Sacré Cœur et l'Apostolat. Parti à Sydney en 1886 il était un des 3 prémiers missionnaires qui foulèrent cette terre presque inconnue en Europe. Lorsque le 8 mai 1888, il débarqua à Nonouti, plusieurs centaines de Catholiques baptisés à Tahiti l'attendaient, 8 églises étaient debout, dont l'une en planche's les autels étaient prêts, on n'attendait plus que le Sacrificateur. 16 îles composent le groupe des Gilbert, 8 celui des Ellice; il parcourut ces terres madréporiques, remua et convertit ce peuple qui se donna à la sainte Eglise, endurant des privations et des fatigues que Dieu seul connait.—En 1898 il reçut les bulles de Rome le nommant et l'instituant premier Vicaire Apostolique de ce nouveau Vicariat. Ce fut un jour de grande angoisse pour le zélé missionnaire qui se sentait apôtre mais redoutait l'administration. Actuellement 55 missionnaires travaillent ce champ. Le nombre des chrétiens vivants est de 14,000 sur une population de 30,000. Address: l'Ile de Nonouti, Gilbert Island Col.. via Sydney, N.S.W.
